

PSID-CDS

Panel Study of Income Dynamics-Child Development Supplement Seminar Series Calendar - 2009-2010

Fridays, 12-1pm - 6080 ISR

Complimentary lunch - RSVP required: pathall@umich.edu

Friday, September 18: Amy Hsin, Population Studies Center, Institute for Social Research
Is Biology Destiny: Birth Weight and Differential Parental Treatment

Friday, October 16: Ngi Chiteji, Skidmore College, Department of Economics
Non-cognitive Skills, Health Behaviors, and Economic Outcomes throughout the Life Course and Across Generations

Friday, November 13: HwaJung Choi, UM Medical School; co-authored with Ann Ferris, (EPA)
Health and Adult Children's Subsequent Labor Force Participation

Friday, Dec 4: Anjum Hajat, School of Public Health and UM Dept of Epidemiology
Do the Wealthy Have a Health Advantage?

Friday, Jan 15, 2010: Narayan Sastry, PSID & Population Studies Center
Neighborhood and Family Sources of Inequality in Children's Development

Friday, Feb 12, 2010: Emily Wiemers, Panel Study of Income Dynamics (formerly UCLA)
The Evolution of Geographic Proximity among Family Members over the Life Cycle

Friday, March 12, 2010: Elena Gousgova, Panel Study of Income Dynamics
Estimating the Intergenerational Persistence of Lifetime Earnings with Life Course Matching: Evidence from the PSID

Friday, May 14, 2010: Patrick Wightman, National Poverty Center
Title TBD