

PSID-CDS

Panel Study of Income Dynamics-Child Development Supplement Seminar Series Calendar - 2008-2009

Fridays, 12-1pm - 6080 ISR

Complimentary lunch - RSVP required: pathall@umich.edu

Friday, September 19: Mesmin Destin, Doctoral Candidate, Psych, U of M, (destin@umich.edu)
Assets, Inequality, and the Transition to Adulthood: An Analysis of the Panel Study of Income Dynamics

Friday, October 17: Claudia Sahm, Federal Reserve Board, (Claudia.R.Sahm@frb.gov)
Intergenerational Transmission of Risk Preference: Evidence from Survey Measures of Risk Tolerance.
This work is co-authored with Miles Kimball and Matthew Shapiro, U of M

Friday, November 7: HwaJung Choi, PhD in Economics, Research Analyst, U of M Med School
(hwajungc@med.umich.edu)
Intergenerational proximity: Cross-sectional and Life-course aspects

December - No seminar this month.

Friday, January 16: David Ratner, Ford School of Public Policy, U of M (dratner@umich.edu)
Children of the Corn: The Intergenerational Transmission of Food Stamp Receipt

Friday, February 13: Lloyd Grieger, Ford School of Public Policy, U of M (lgrieger@umich.edu)
Variations in the Duration and Risk of Experiencing Adulthood Poverty in the United States (Lloyd Grieger, Sheldon Danziger, Peter Gottschalk)

Friday, March 6: Michael Lemay, University of Maryland, (mlemay@survey.umd.edu)
Effect of life events on various sources of attrition: evidence from the Panel Study of Income Dynamics

Friday, April 3: Alexandra (Sasha) Achen and Margaret Gough,
UM Doctoral students in Sociology (achena@umich.edu; mmgough@umich.edu)
A Life-Course Perspective on Couples' Division of Labor
(Founder's Room, 6006 ISR - this week only)