

Workshop on the Uses of the PSID to Address Health-Related Issues
Thursday October 23rd, 2003
Room 6050, Institute for Social Research
Ann Arbor, Michigan

Continental breakfast: 8:15-8:45

Introductory remarks: 8:45-9:00

Session I: 9:00-10:00

9:00-9:30 Jim Smith (RAND)

SES and Health Over the Life Course

9:30-9:45 Discussant: Jim House (Michigan)

9:45-10:00 Open discussion

Break: 10:00-10:15

Session II: 10:15-11:15

10:15-10:45 Ben Amick (University of Texas, Houston)

Job Characteristics and Mortality

10:45-11:00 Discussant: George Kaplan (Michigan)

11:00-11:15 Open discussion

Break: 11:15-11:30

Session III: 11:30-12:30

11:30-12:00 Rucker Johnson and Bob Schoeni (Michigan)

The Effects of Neighborhood Quality During Childhood on Health Status in Early and Mid-Life

12:00-12:15 Discussant: Ken Chay (Berkeley)

12:15-12:30 Open discussion

Lunch: 12:30-1:45

Session IV: 1:45-2:45

1:45-2:15 Elizabeth Vandewater (University of Texas, Austin)

Linking Obesity and Activity Level with Children's Television and Video Game Use

2:15-2:30 Discussant: Michael Rich (Children's Hospital Boston & Harvard Medical School)

2:30-2:45 Open discussion

Break: 2:45-3:00

Session V: 3:00-4:00

3:00-3:30 Frank Stafford and Kate McGonagle (Michigan)

Intergenerational Transmission of Obesity

3:30-3:45 Discussant: Chris Paxson (Princeton)

3:45-4:00 Open Discussion

Sponsored by the PSID and the National Poverty Center