

Panel Study of Income Dynamics-Child Development Supplement
On-Campus Seminar Series, 2006-2007

All seminars are held on Fridays, 12-1pm, in 6080 ISR
Complimentary lunch will be served

Friday, September 22: Frank Stafford, PSID and Department of Economics, and Elena Gouskova, PSID

Fun with FIMS: Intergenerational Earnings Correlations of Sons and Dads

Wednesday, October 25: Wei-Jun Jean Yeung, New York University, Department of Sociology,
Center for Advanced Social Science Research (Room 6050 ISR)

Childhood Consumption and Well-Being: A Mechanism of Intergenerational Transfer

Friday, November 17: Helen Levy, Health and Retirement Study, SRC, and Department of Economics

Health Insurance in the PSID

Friday, December 15: Lloyd D. Grieger and Jessica J.B. Wyse, University of Michigan

Rates of Long-Term Childhood Poverty by Race Over Three Decades

Friday, January 19: No seminar this month.

Friday, February 16: No seminar this month.

Friday, March 16: Jason Winfree, Division of Kinesiology, and Mike Leeds, Department of Economics, Racial differences in the determinants of obesity

Friday, April 13: Mark Wilhelm, Department of Economics, Indiana University-Purdue
University at Indianapolis

What Parental Investments are Correlated with Children's Prosocial Behavior?

Friday, April 20: Annette Jackle, Institute for Social and Economic Research, University of Essex

Dependent interviewing: a framework and application to current research