

Seminar Series Calendar, 2011-2012

All presentations are on Fridays from 12-1pm in 6080 ISR

RSVP required: pathall@umich.edu

April 13 - Patrick Wightman, Public Policy, National Poverty Center
Multi-Generational Income Disadvantage and the Transition to Adulthood
(co-authored with Sheldon Danziger)

April 19 - Wei-Jun Jean Yeung, Univ of Singapore & Univ of Michigan
Explaining Black-White Achievement Gap: An Intergenerational and Developmental Perspective

May 11 - Jason Winfree, School of Kinesiology, University of Michigan
Determinants of Sports Participation among Children: Evidence from a National Panel Survey

Lunch is provided; RSVP is required; pathall@umich.edu

Former seminars (Fall 2011):

Sep 16, 2011 - HwaJung Choi, UM, Internal Medicine

The Relationships among Family Economic Status, Intergenerational Proximity and Parental Health: Lessons from the HRS and PSID

Nov 11, 2011 - Jessica Broome, Survey Methodology Program

Time Use and Wellbeing with CATI Diaries: The Role of Interviewer and Respondent Behaviors

Nov 18, 2011 - Jenna Fulton, UofMD, Joint Program in Survey Methodology

Respondent & Interviewer Effects on Consent to Medicare Record Linkage in PSID

Dec 9, 2011 - Frank Stafford, Panel Study of Income Dynamics

Pensions as a Rainy Day Fund?

Jan 20, 2011 - Denise Duffy & Narayan Sastry, PSID

Assessing the National Representativeness of Children in the Panel Study of Income Dynamics